

Eureka

Oh! God!! I found you!!!

On the brink of despair,

When players failed; forgiveness denied

I lost faith in you.

I thought you bestowed woes on me

To punish me or test my faith.

I came to you if and when I needed you,

Then I wanted you to be my god; mine alone.

All “Houses of god” I sought you in

Quite prepared to face your wrath:

I thought you gave me life;

Hence you owed me much.

But then, again, it came to me

You could un-make me, too.

Now I know it was all ILLUSION.

You did not and could not

Make or un-make me.

I made you

Unmake you, I will

To hold in my heart

GOODNESS INFINITE!

-Peacock

May 20, 2008